

E-learning

Tools Session 2: Networking Technologies

Key topics: social networking, IM, microblogging, social sharing, e-portfolios, PLEs, search, folksonomies, rss

Key terms: egocentric networks, latent ties, bonding vs bridging capital, context collision

Key theorists: danah boyd

| E-blog Feeds – Screen capture: MP 2008 |

A: Social Networking Technologies

We'll begin today's Tools session by focusing on technologies which foreground the social aspects of networking (though informational elements also play a role here).

 Social networking sites

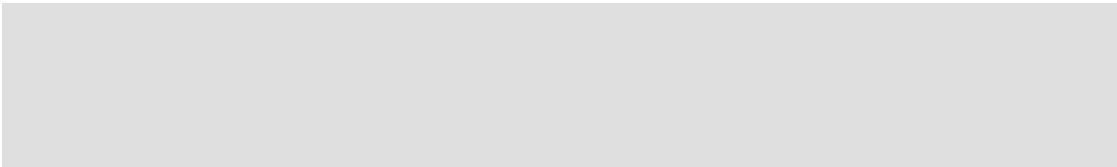

1) Social networking sites

Notes:

 IM

2) IM

Notes:

 Microblogging

3) Microblogging

Notes:

 Social sharing

4) Social sharing

Notes:

 E-portfolios

5) E-portfolios

Notes:

 PLEs

6) PLEs [Personal learning environments]

Notes:

B: Information Networking Technologies

We'll continue today's Tools session by focusing on technologies which foreground informational networking (though there is often also a social element).

 Search

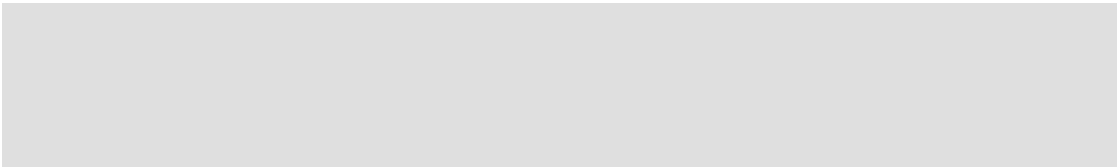

7) Search

Notes:

 Folksonomies

8) Folksonomies

Notes:

9) RSS

Notes:

